

75c.

This Infants' Cap in white, made of elegant quality embroidered silk with double lace ruching around face, large pompon of lace and baby ribbon on top. Extra wide silk strings to match. All sizes. Special price. 750

The "Nona" Corset.

Made expressly for us by the W. B. people, The best $1.00 Corset made. We guarantee the fit and wear of these in every respect.

S. KANN,

8th & Market Space.

Special items in lining that are of such excellent values that we can only offer them for one day at such prices.

his fareweils that the train was well on its way to Baltimore before he realized what had happened. At Baltimore the aged cavalier managed to tear himself away, but it was exactly five hours from the time he entered the depot until he emerged from it, and there stood the cabby, with whom he managed to settle at the rate of a five-dollar note, plus the promise that the fellow would not recount the episode in which the fond but unfortunate diplomat played the role of hero. This, of course, he did half an hour later. Oriental Fiber Chamoi in black and 150

Genuthe French Hair Worth 65c 390 Yard wide Fast Black Rustic Perca- | OC

S. Kann, Sons α UU.,

8th and Market Space.

OCEAN STEAMERS

FOR EUROPE and the Orient this winter. Mrs. M. A. CROSSLEY will conduct her tonth select European narry Green Turkey, islands of conduct her teath select European narry through snain, Greece, Turkey, islands of the Mediterranean, Asia Minor, Syria, Pal-estine, the Nile to the Hirst cataract, Italy, Switzerland, France, and England, leav-ing New York JANUARY 8, 1896, by ex-press steamer, NORMANNIA, First class throughout For lineraries, address Mrs. M.A. CROSLEY, 786 Putnam ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

UNDERTAKERS.

J. WILLIAM LEE UNDERTAKER. First class service Phone 1335. 1y4-5mo

DIED.

CHILDS-Suddenly, on October 28, 1895. Albert L. Childs, in the sixty-eighth year of his age, beloved husband of Mrs. Kate his age, beloved hustand of Mrs. Kate Childs.

The relatives and friends, Harmony Lodge, No. 9, 1, 0, of 0, F., Magemu Encampment, No. 4, 1, 0, of 0, F., Frankin Lodge, No. 2, K. of P., America Castle, No. 3, K. of G. E., of which he was a member, are most respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from his late residence, No. 1128 Park place northeast, 2 p. m., and proceed to the Independent Methodist Church, Eleventh street, between G and I streets southeast. Services at church, 2:30.

Bless thou us, Lord, in the kingdom above, Whence Thy grace so freely given. So long have we journey'd together son earth, Receive us together in heaven.

earth, Receive us together in heaven. His WIFE. Norristown papers please copy. oc30-2t

PHILLIPS-Died October 30, 1895, John PHILLIPS—Died October 30, 1895, John P. Philips, aged 1 year 26 days. Only son of John E. and Virginia J. Phillips.
Funeral from parents' residence, No.
341 G street southwest, Friday, November
1, at 3 p. m.
Day by day we saw him fade,
And gently sink away,
And often in our hearts we prayed
That he might longer stay.
A light from out our household gone;
The one we loved so well.
We have placed him in Jesus' arms,
And bld him forever farewell.

And bid bim forever farewell.

BY HIS LOVING PARENTS.

Absolutely Painless Dentistry.

OW about your teeth? If they're not sound and free from aches let us make them so. We'll perform the necessary operations quickly, skillfully and in an absolutely pamless manner. The sooner you consult us sconer you consult us the better. Painless extraction 50c.

Evans Dental Parlors,

HOTELS. 470-472 Pennsylvania avenue north-west, near 6th street. Business men's unch, 12 to 2 o'clock, 25c; table d'hote linner, 4:30 to 7:30 p.m., 50c. oc23-3m

Stoll's shoes

SMART FROCKS WERE WORN

Gossip About the Payson-LeGhait

Wedding and Other Events.

Fortune Spent in Floral Decorations

for the Vanderbilt-Marlborough

Nuprials-Several Box Parties.

At the Payson-LeGhait wedding yesterday there was a gathering of more smart frocks than I have seen at any one time this season, and I noticed, to the credit of our own modistes, that those women, who had bought their trousseaus on this side of the water were quite as correctly and modishly attired as those who spent their good American dollars on the materials woven in their own country, comfort to his unhappy parents than all the material evidences of grief their great wealth can buy.

One of the elderly members of the dip omatic corps, whose well-known gallan-try to the fair sex is a matter of general comment, recently accompanied a young lady, who was on her way to New York, to the Sixth street depot. When they ar-to the Sixth street depot. When they ar rived at the station he neglected to dis miss the cab, but went into the car with his young friend, and immediately entered into an animated conversation with her. So interested, indeed, did he become in his farewells that the train was well on

The floral display at the marriage of Miss Consuclo Vanderbilt to the Duke of Marlborough next Wednesday, will, it is claumed, surpass that at the Gould-Castel-lane wedding, which was up to that time the grandest ever seen on a similar occa-

the Orient will, with those from the jungle with orchids clinging to them, be seen sid by side with the rarest of all home-grown plants—the pink chrysanthenum.

It is claimed that to buy the plants to be an equal distance, would cost several thous and dollars each if bought outright. The street. Between the large palms smaller ones are to be arranged, masking in the window sills and reaching as far up as the

I met a man the other day who is just er from the other side—you know. "Did you see Versailles and Fontainblue?"

"No," he answered, laconically.
"Did you go to the Tower of London?

"No," again.
"Did you, perhaps, see 'Sans Souci?" "
"No," impatiently this time.

"Did you do anything?" at last I almos

"Yes; I brought home a top coat, ar eight pairs of trousers. I spent three weeks with a friend of mine in Devonshire, and I did not miss a race in England or the Con-tinent all the time I was gone."

"My." I said, breathlessly, "you were orogogogogogogo

"No." Impatiently this time.
"Did you see 'Sunrise on the Rigi?" '

"Did you take a cure?"

Feel

Badly

Brown's

Bitters

2 ITON

To-day?

IT CURES

MEURALGIA, TROUBLES, CONSTIRATION, IMPURE BLOOD, MERVOUR ALIMENTS, WOMEN'S COMPLAIRTS.

Get only the genuine—it has crossed red lines on the wrapper.

lower sash, giving the effect of win plants from Australia. Europe and

sion in New York.

included Mr. Mario de Mendonca and his charming young wife; Mrs. U. S. Grant, who was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Sartoris, and Postmastar General Jones; Mrs. Richard Townsend; Sir Julian Paunce-fote, accompanied by several members of the embassy; the Belgian minister, M. Le Ghait, and a number of representatives of the diplomatic and official set.

Immense stag-horn ferus, big bushes of pink chrysanthemums and sago paims will relieve the solid backing of duller green. Cut flowers in profusion, principally white carnations, will be everywhere.

The hall is to be filled with palms and ferus. A great variety of the palm known as "Leaforthia" will stand in the opening near the grand staircase and reach to the ceiting. The inlaid marble and gold staircase will be festooned with variegated vines, and ferus will peep from beneath the balastrades.

Under the grand staircase the Hungarian Band will be screened from view by the banging vines from above and four large trees in front. At the ball entrance will be the flowers for the guests, which they will receive as they enter the bouse.

Upon their return from the church the young couple will stand under the bell while receiving congratulations, and after-ward the wedding breakfast will be served. It is in the dining room, however, that the florist's art will be seen at its best. The table for the bride and groom will be laid with eighteen covers, the center of the table banked with white carnations, lilies of the valley and orchids. The decorations around the room will be on the plan of those in the reception room and hall. The wedding cake has already been ordered. Each guest at the breakfast will be given a bit of the cake in a ster-It is regrettable that American women are not as loyal in this particular as their English and Irish sisters, who wear the will be given a bit of the case in a ser-ling silver box, on the lid of which will be a ducal coronet, with the initials of the bride and groom and date of the wedding. The favors are being made at Tiffany's, and are said to be very handsomely enmade up by the skill of their own country-men, in preference to the most tempting creations from across the channel.

The vulgarity that stamps all the details of young John Mackay's funeral must shock anyone who has read the press accounts. It is impossible to conceive what feeling prompts a mother to exploit the most sacred and are said to be very handsomery cu-graved and chased.

Besales the floral decorations, it is said there is now on the way from England, from the conservatory at Blenheim, an immense bouquet for Miss Vanderbilt.

The Mariborough-Vanderbilt nuptials are to be celebrated in ministure next Saturday afternoon in the show window of an enter prising Broadway florist. The florist is ne who failed to secure the decoration cor prompts a mother to exploit the most sacred emotion possible to her—grief at the death of her child—in this indelicate manner.

No one will question Mrs. Mackay's supreme sorrow, but is it possible that the miles of crepe, the silver stars, the foff-wagon-loads of flowers, the mottoes celling the world that she is a broken-hearted mother can in any way assuage it?

Some where in the world are people whom the young millionaire, when in lite, out of his plenty, heiped. Some poor debtor A large platform is being built out from the window and on this will be creeted a small chancel and altar, before which will stand a little boy and girl dressed in bridal array. Before them will stand another youth in whom the young minonaire, when it me, out of his plenty, heiped. Some poor debtor whose debts he forgave, some suffering wennan whose path he made easy, some invalid, whose days of pain he brightened by his generosity, may drop tears of grief on his hier, which tears should bring more clerical garb to represent the rector.

The young lady is to wear a gown the fac-simile of Miss Vanderbill's. The boy dake $11,$12, and $13.50.

EVERY GARMENT

Newest Box effects and Diagona, close-fitting fronts in Kersey-Beaver, Boucle Cloth, Astrakhanl Crcton, and Diagonal Cheviots.
All at $9.95.

BON MARCHE, 314-316 Seventh St. N. W.

large and beautiful cluster of Bride roses She entered the church on the arm of the groom, having been excited to the door by her brother, Mr. Lawrence Washington, of Alexandria, who, at the altar, gave her away.

The suptials were witnessed by only the immediate friends of the bride and groom. The officiating clergymen were Kev. Beverly D. Tucker, D. D., of St. Paul's, and Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, of St Luke's, both kinsmen of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony Maj. and Mf Hunter left for Virginia Beach, where the will occupy for a while the bride's cotage at that resort, no immediate trip away having been arranged as a feature of the nuptials.

nuptials,

The bride is a descendant of Gen. George The bride is a descendant of Gen. George Washington's brother. John Augustine Washington, of Mount Vernon, who was killed while serving on Gen. R. E. Lee's staff during the war between the States. She is also a sister of Mrs. Tucker, wife of Rev. Dr. B. D. Tucker, of Norfolk.

The groom is a prominent attorney at the bar of Virginia, and holds the position of Solicitor for the United States Interior Department. He was on the staff of Gen. Gordon during the late war.

Gordon during the late war.

Miss May Jordan, of No. 21 K street northeast, was married this afternoon at 2 o'clock at 8t. Aloysins' Church to Mr. Andrew J. Schwartz, of No. 16 I street

The bride, robed daintily in white and Mrs. Brown (on her honeymoon): "Oh, aren't you glad, darling, we have come this delightful tour instead of going to one of those stupid for-

[Darling is not quite sure about it, as the hills are of terrible frequency, and, naturally, he tows his bride up every one.]

lavender gloves. The mock clergyman and the tiny bridal couple will make appropriate used at the wedding would cost between fifty and sixty thousand dollars. In sup-port of this, it is said that five Australian tree ferns, ten feet high, and spreading out gestures, and the bridegroom will place a gold ring upon the bride's finger. The little girl will wear a handsome becklace of dianonds loaned for the occasion by a neigh cose of renting these is sufficient, even for the Vanderbilts.

The central figure of the decorations will The marriage of Miss Pauline Whitney, daughter of ex-Secretary William C. Whit-ney, to Almeric Hugh Paget, of England, will also occur on November 12. be an immense wedding bell of lilles of the valley. It is to be open work, and will sway back and forth with the slightest With these three brides it is estimated that forty million dollars of American wealth breath of air, giving the appearance of ring-ing out "the glad tidings." Radiating from it will be the tops of the great pain trees trees standing against the wall on the Madigoes to subjects of Queen Victoria.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland with their family moved out to Woodley yes on avenue side.

One great palm will be paced at each window, to shut out the view from the erday afternoon, where they will re during the fall, not coming in before De-cember. Mrs. Cleveland spent the morning shopping before leaving for her country

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thaw, of Pitts-burg, wealthy Pennsylvanians, will winter in Washington, and be among the many set in a solid wall of green. To the big palms will cling the orchids in bloom. orilliant entertainers at the Capital.

> President and Mrs. Cleveland will occupy box to-night at "The Masqueraders

Mrs. Stevenson, mother of Vice President Stevenson, celebrated her eighty sixth birthday yesterday at her home in Chicago. All of her children, including Vice President Stevenson, were present.

The date of the wedding of Urben H Broughton and Mrs. Cora Rogers Duff land Broughton and Mrs. Cora Rogers Duff has just been fixed for 4 p. m. November 12. Mrs. Duff has a million in her own right, and ans. Dair has a minim der own togue, and nobody knows what will come to her at the death of her father, but no cetimate falls below $18,000,000. Her father is Henry H. Rogers, president of the Standard Oil Company. He lives at 26 East Thirty-seventh street, New York, and the marriage cere-mony will take place there in the presence of a very few intimate friends. A large general reception will follow. Mrs. Duff is very pretty as well as very rich, and she is to her twenty-sixth year. Four years ago she was married to Brad-ford Daff, prominent in New York society. He belonged to the Columbia College Dra-matic Club. He died two years ago. Society was out in full force last even-ing to hear "the divine Melba." Among the box parties were those of the Brazilian minister and Madame de Mendorea, which Mr. Broughton came here from England eight or nine years ago. He is interested in business in Chicago. He is thirty years old His father is a man of good position in

> The marriage of Miss Stella Mutcheson, daughter of Congressman Joseph Chappell Hutcheson, of Texas, to Mr. Lewis Merriwether Dabney, of Dallas, Texas, took place in the Madison Avenue Church, New York, yesterday. Rev. Dr. Kittredge officiated, and Dr. Charles H. Dabney, assistant secretary of agriculture, acted as best man. Two little girls, Misses Rosalie Hutcheson and Katharine Carrington, were the bride's attendants.

There was a very quiet but pretty wed ding as old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopa Church, at Norfolk. Va., resterday after-noon, the bride being Miss Eliza Selden Washington and the groom Maj. Robert W. Hunter, of Winchester, Va. The chancel of the sacred edifice had been decorated with a profusion of beautiful growing plants and a variety of ferns. The florist of St. Paul's had charge of the decoration.

The bride was attired in a handsome black silk gown, trimmed in dell jet, with hand gloves to correspond, and carried a corrying chrysamhemums tied with satin bows, entered the charch with the groom, preceded by the ushers, Mr. Francis X. Preston, Mr. Richard Harvey, Mr. George Little and Mr. Charles J. Bogan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father bolan, S. J., and the nuptial march rendered by Prof. S. J. Kubel, organist of the church. The ceremony was followed church. The ceremony was followed by a reception until 4 o'clock, when Mr. atel Mrs. Schwartz left for a bridal trip to the North.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Morgan, of No. 1330 Vermont avenue, are about to issue cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth France, to James Villiam Flack, Jr., of Baltimore. The ceremony will take place at the Church of the Covenant on the evening of November 20 at 6:30 o'clock

John B. Goff and his son Albert, of Capitol Hill, are home from their autumn trip to the Blue Ridge Mountains

The many friends of Mrs. Eliza P. Andrews of M street, South Washington, will be pleased to learn that she has recovered from the painful fall she received early in Miss Virginia Bowie, of Prince George's County, Md., is the guest of Miss Pearl Anderson, of Capitol Hill.

Miss Elia Hyde, of I street northeast, will give a dancing party Thursday night n honor of her guests, Misses Beulah and Mamie Hill.

Mrs. George Adams, of Dorchester, Mass,

The Golden Rod Club gave its first a nual social tast night at the home of its president, Miss Nellie McGrath, of Capitri Hill. A pretty feature of the evening's programme was the presentation of a thy spray of the club's patron flower chased in gold to the mother of Miss McGrath the only honorary member of the associa

Among those present were Miss Alie Curtis, Miss Daisy McGuire, Miss Eva Len-thal, Miss Mamie Rickets, Miss Annie Boyle, Misses Mamie and Bessie Stoll, and Messra, Frank Howard, John B. Pierson, Hanson Boyle, Boyd Mason, Ed V. Lans-dale and John and Harry Moore.

Miss Louisa B. Gant and her cousin. Miss portheast, will leave shortly for a trip to their consin in Mobile, Ala. While

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Porter, of Eas Capitol street, are spending October with the sister of Mr. Porter, Mrs. B. Witherow, at her home in Allentown, Pa.

The friends of Mise Carrie H. Mason of K street northeast, will be pleased learn that she is recuperating from recent illuess.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Le Grand, of Chicago, Ill., were the recent guests of Mrs. L. B. Harrison, of the Seventh street road, extended. Mr. and Mrs. Le Grand are now at the Atlanta Exposition, but will return to the city about the middle of November and extend their visit to Mrs. Har-rison until after the Christmas holidays.

The portrait show, as a brilliant fall event, is firmly established in the appro-bation of New Yorkers, and now why should not Washington society have a portrait show instead of flocking to another city in its finest feathers?

No place of its size in this country has more art treasures than the Capital, or a greater number of portraits of lovely women done by artists of note.

greater number of portraits of lovely women done by artists of note.

Among the exquisite display of miniatures now at the portrait snow is a concettion, the work of Mr. Robert Keeling, of this city. Mrs. James Brown Potter, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. Gebhard, and Mrs. Stilson Hutchins, of Washington, are the beautiful subjects of Mr. Keeling's art, and it is matter of regret that the portrait of Mrs. S. S. Howland, on which he is at work, could not be given the that skindth touches in time to complete this set of gens, approved by the New York critics.

Let Washington have a portrait show of its very own, very soon.

Miss Alice Grace Henderson, of Massa chusetts avenue, has returned from a brief visit to relatives in Vicksburg, Va.

Miss Mary Hutchins, of B street southwest, will give a reception Thursday evening to the members of the G. P. club.

Miss Rath Kerr, who has been the guest of her brother, at Salt Lake Chy, Utah, for some time, is now visiting Mrs. John Burguin, nee Carlisle, at her home in Pittaburg, Pa. Miss Kerr is one of the prettiest and most sprightly girls in society here, a clever amateur actress and a dancer of quite as much grace and agility as certain noted professionals.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Duncan Butcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Butcher, of No. 1104 New Hampshire avenue, to Mr. William Sheriock Brosson. will take place at Foundry Methodist Church this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. Oliver brown will officate, and the attendants will be Miss Berta Loyd, of Lynchburg, Va., and Mr. Benjamin Butcher, brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Broz-son will leave immediately after the cere-mony for a bridal tour through the South, making their home here on their return, at the Westminster.

A marriage to occur to-day is that of Miss Rebecca Lee brown, formerly of this city, to Mr. James William Strobel. The ceremony will take place at Madison Avenue
M. E. Church, Baltimore. The father of the bride, Rev. B. Peyton Brown, at one time pastor of Wesley Church, this city, will officiate.

Mrs. Edgar L. Barciay, formerly of No. 2135 I street, has moved to No. 2210 H street northwest, where she will be at home to friends Wednesdays.

A pretty luncheon in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nion, of Portland, Oreg., was given at noon yesterday, by Mr. and Mrs. R. Bowman Matthews, of No. 1757 Corcoran street.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sontag have issued invitations for their wooden wedding to take place at No. 352 I street southwest, Monday evening, November 4, at 8 o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. James Clarke McGuire have ust returned from a trip through Europe on their wheels, and are now the guests of Mrs. Rundlett at her home on I street forthwest. Mrs. McGuire, as Miss Annie Rundlett, was one of last season's belies. Dr. and Mrs. McGuire will go to house-keeping before long at their new home on P street.

The first meeting this season of the Canton Flannel Society took place at the home of Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont, this morning. It is made up entirely of the matrons and naids of army and navy circles, whose organized efforts do nuch for charity.

Mrs. Jenness Miller, who has done such successful work for dress reform, is at the

The Ladies' Historical Society will hold their first meeting at the residence of Mrs. Horatio King, president, the first Friday in December, at which date the many clever women who compose the organization will doubtless have returned to their homes here.

Miss Mary V. Raines, of Kendal Green, is making a brief visit to her sister, Mrs. Albert Harrison, of Richmond, Va.

Miss Mamie Allston, of southern Mary-land, is the guest of Miss Alice Digges, of B street, South Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Moore, of Seventh street northeast, gave a small card party last night-to their guest, Mrs. Eliza Gar-rett, of Ealthnore. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Davidson, Miss Laura Davidson, and Mr. Harry Moore.

Mr. Charles M. Emerson, of K street northeast, left the city Sunday for a brief trip to the South, that will include the Altanta exposition.

Miss Grace Andrews and her brother, Mr. Walter Andrews, of North Capitol street, will give a legend sociable Thurs-day night in nonor of the club bearing that name. A prize will be awarded to the member who relates the most interesting story concerning All Hallowe'en. The names of the officers of the Legend Club are George B. Frank, president; Miss Grace Andrews, vice president; Miss Vinnie Cornell, secretary, and Mr. George B. Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Porter, of Maryland avenue northeast, will return Saturday from an extended trip to the Misses Ella and Nora Neale, of Dela-ware avenue, will give a "Hard Times" party to-night.

Miss Ella Hyde, of Baltimore, is the ruest of her cousin, Miss Daisy Brown, o Capitol Hill.

Miss Mary M. Nichols, of East Capitol street, is home from a pleasant visit to Dr. Joseph Egan, of Waterbury, Conn., has returned to the city, and has re-sumed his studies at the Columbian University.

Department Personals. Mr. Joseph Jose, of the lighthouse board of the Treasury Department, has just re-covered from a long illness and expects to return to his desk in a few days. Mr. William Long, of the statistical di-vision of the Agricultural Department, re-turned to the city yesterday after a de-lightful week's visit to his home in North Carolina.

Carolina.

Mr. John M. Comstock, chief clerk of the custom office, has removed from his summer home in Echington to No. 1120 Thirteenth street northwest.

Dr. William T. Harris, commissioner of elucation, is spending his annual vacation at the Atlanta Exposition. In his absence Chief Clerk Pierce is in charge of the office.

the office.

The many friends of Dr. W. W. Wimberly, of Adamswille, Ga., for many years a cierk in the eastern division of the Pension office, will be pleased to know that he anticipates visiting Washington for two weeks during the mouth of November. Miss Namie Brent, of the Department of Agriculture, who fell from a Columbia rai-road car and sustained serious internal injuries about three mouths ago is slowly improving at Providence Hospital. It will be some time, however, before she will be able to be out.

will be able to be out.

Mrs. Sarah Page, of the Pension Of-fice, who has had the misfortune to lose three daughters by typhold fever within the past six weeks, the last death being that of her cidest daughter, which oc-curred only three days ago, is jving in a critical condition at her home in Takoma Park.

College Debating Society Organized purpose of forming a literary and debating society. Mr. Charles Turner was elected president, Miss Almyra Burgess, vice pres-ident; Miss Dalsy Wedding, secretary; Mr. Fraucis Carmody, treasurer. Prof. Court F. Wood, principal, was elected

After a subject for debate had been se-lected for the next meeting and other routine business transacted, Miss Dalsy Wedding gave a recitation. The meeting was theu adjourned until Tuesday next.

Great Slaughter Sale of Capes

We have just received some large consignments of Ladies' Capes and Jackets, and we are going to make a special three-day sale of them. They are the lates! styles out, and are a magnificent exhibition.

$15 Plush Capes, $9.98.

One lot Plush capes, Marten fur trimmed, double

$10 Plush Capes, $6.98.

$6 and $7 Cloth Capes, $3.98.

Double Cloth Capes, $5.48.

Jackets. $2.98.

$6, $7, $8 Jackets, $4,98. Ladies' All-wool Blue and Black Jackets, with ripple back, extra large sleeves-stylish and rich

KING'S PALACE,

We have just received a car load of the finest at 15c. per peck, or 5oc. per bushel. Fresh Pork 3 lbs. 25c

Fresh Ham, per lb 10c
Fresh Shoulder, per lb 8c
Fresh Bread, per loaf 4c Emrich's Elgin, better than the 30c best butter, per lb...... Emrich's Purity; cannot be 20c

Main Market, I306-1312 32d St. N.W. Telephone 347. Branch Markets-1718 14th st. nw.; 2025 14th st. nw.; Sth and M sts. nw.; 3057 M at. nw.; Elstand K sts. nw.; 205 indiana ave. nw.; 5th st. and I sts. nw.; 4th st. and I's ave. nw.; 15th st. and I's ave. nw.

We never let up.

Each day we have a fresh lot of bargains, and each one tries to outdo all

SPECIAL One-Hour

Sales FOR TO-DAY ONLY.

9 to 10 A. M. Large Japanned Dustpan and Brush . . . 10c (Regular price, 20c.)

10 to 11 A. M. Crystal Water Goblets, 10c per ½ doz. (Regular price, 25c.)

11 to 12. Good quality Whisk Brooms, 3c each.

Large size "Acme" Steel Fry Pans, with cold handle, each, 8c Regular price, 15c and 20c.

Irons, per set Regular price, $1.19. Half-dozen Silver-plated Teaspoons, half-dozen Forks, and 1 ft. 6 by 3 ft. Turkish Rug Mats... Regular price, 60c.

Poker and Lifter, and Sieve. .. 29c Regular price, 50c. Large Pie Plates, 3 for.

Large size Tin Ham Boilers 18c Regular price, 29c.

Regular price, 39c.

Regular price, 25c. with inlaid yard measures.....55c Regular price, $1,09.

Universal Housefurnishing Store,

Live Missouri News. (From the Centralia Fireside Guard.) Aubra Johnson and child are able to take John Foddy, of Mexico, was in our midst Miss Etta Wingo was in our midst last Thompson wiped the earth with our boys last Saturday in a game of baseball.

The residence of M. A. Armold was burglarized one night last week Mr. Armold's pants were stolen and Mrs. Armold lost a lot of wearing apparel.
"Are you God's fools?" is the question in Sunday evening sermon at the Methodist Church. Wheat and rye is suffering for rain.

M. C. Flemmings, of Sturgeon, visited is best girl last Sunday.
Mrs. Mary Pigr and sons, of Columbia, were the guests of the former's brother, Lodis Goelin, Sunday.

Singing at Isaac Chrisman's Thursday night of this week. Master Curtis Forshey accompanied aunt Susie Wade to Callaway to visit.

Uncle Reuben Russell and family, of Centralia, Sundayed with Sam Davenport and Grandma Mayes and daughter, Mrs. Shafer, of Mexico, are visiting 8. P. Loren and family.

James Ballew and wife, of Murry, were guests of Grandpa Wade and family Sunday The young man who got left last Sunday night and then tried to kill himself on the road home will please come around and give an account of himself.

John M. Denham and family are improving fast. John has had three relaps, but can ent a can of oyster a day now.

D. B. Roberts has an apple tree that is bearing its second crop of apples, and they are as large as hens' eggs; and Dr. Hutchens has a peach tree that has got its second crop for this year as large as plotts.

THURSDAY-FRIDAY-SATURDAY.

One lot of Plush Capes, with sear trimining, sweep—very elegant and much worn in New York now. Regular price, $10.00. Our special sale $6.98 One lot of Plush Capes, with seal trimming, full

All-wool Cloth, satin and braid trimmed, full sweep-very stylish and handsome. Regular price, $6.00 and $7.00. For our three-day sale $3.98

All-wool Cloth, trimmed with fur and braid, extra long, full sweep—a most neat and pretty cape. Regular price, $8.00. Our special sale price..... $5.48 looking. Regular price, $6.00, $7.00 and $8.00. $4.98 Our special sale price 812-814 7th St. N. W.

New York Burbank Potatoes, which we will sell equaled, per lb..... EMRICH BEEF CO.

mmmmm

Mrs. Potts' Cold-handle Sad

half-dozen Table Spoons. Regular price, $1.19.

Large size Coal Hod, Shovel.

Extra large size Tin Ham

Leather Lunch Poxes ... Oak Folding Cutting Tables,

512 Ninth St. N. W.